

Jack R. Armstrong

U.S. Army

Jack R. Armstrong
WWII Ambulance Driver In ETO

Jack Armstrong joined the U. S. Army at East Saint Louis, Illinois. He attained the rank of Private 1st Class and served as an ambulance driver in Europe. He was assigned to Clearing Station to the Evacuation Hospital. He served in Northern France, the Ardennes, Rhineland, and Central Europe Campaigns. Jack was awarded three Overseas Service Bars, the European-African-Middle Eastern Ribbon with four Bronze Battle Stars, the American Theater Medal, Good Conduct medal, and the WWII Victory Medal.

Jack R. Armstrong
East St. Louis, IL