

Richard C. Christian

U.S. Army

US Army -11 Infantry Division

Richard C. Christian

US Army -11 Infantry Division
Marseilles, France

Richard C. Christian, home town Dayton, Ohio, was assigned to the Army Specialized Training Program, Basic Training at Fort Benning, Georgia. He was then assigned to the citadel, Charleston, South Carolina for a 2-year engineering program. After 5 months, the program was terminated and Richard was reassigned to the 11 Infantry Division at Fort Bragg, North Carolina.

The 100th joined the 7th Army at Marseilles, France in October, 1944. Richard was a forward observer with an 81-MM Platoon. He was wounded on April 18, 1945 at Beilstein, Germany. His next assignment was at Biarritz, France and the American University. He was discharged in March, 1946 from Fort Dix, New Jersey.

Richard C. Christian
Dayton, Ohio and Chicago, Illinois
Submitted by son Richard C. Christian, Jr and wife Debra Walker and daughter Ann Christian Carra and husband Richard Carra

Richard C. Christian